Greg,

We agree that a having a hearing on your motion to stay the preliminary injunction on April 8, 2025, does not make sense in light of the Second Circuit argument scheduled for April 9, 2025.

We propose that you withdraw the motion (without prejudice) and re-file to the extent necessary after we receive a ruling from the Second Circuit.

Regards,

Chris

Subject: CFPB et al v. StratFS et al - pending Cross-Motion to Stay Preliminary Injunction

[EXTERNAL]

Counsel,

Pending before the Court is my clients' cross-motion to stay the preliminary injunction pending appeal (ECF 613). This cross-motion is set to be heard on April 8, 2025 (ECF 617).

As you are aware, on April 9, 2025, oral argument on the pending appellate issues will be taking place before the Second Circuit. The decision from the Second Circuit may – or may not – moot my clients' cross-motion.

Accordingly, we will be asking the district court to kick the cross-motion (hold it in abeyance) until after the Second Circuit issues its ruling. We will agree, within 10 days of the Second Circuit's decision, to either (i) withdraw the pending cross-motion; or (ii) file a reply in further support of the cross-motion.

Please let us know if you consent to this request.

Thank you,
Greg
